APPENDIX
[Announcer]: The people of America should be running our government. That's the way it was set up in the first place.

The problem is the special interests and the paid lobbyists who control the Washington politicians. The answer is term limits. Term limits replace Washington insiders with new people who reflect community interests, not politics as usual. Molly Bordonaro has signed the pledge to limit her terms in Congress. David Wu refused. Call David Wu and tell him to sign the US Term Limits Pledge.
[Announcer]: Behind this label is a shameful story of political prisoners and forced labor camps, of wages as low as

13 cents an hour, of a country that routinely violates trade rules flooding our markets draining American jobs. Now Congress is set to scrap its annual review of China's record and reward China with a permanent trade deal. Tell Congresswoman Myrick to vote "No" and keep China on probation until this label stands for fairness. [DIS]: Paid for by the AFL-CIO.

[Melanie]: "My mom started this business and my brother and I worked hard to make it grow. One day we hope to own it but because of the law, we can never be sure." [Announcer]: Because of the Death tax, people like Melanie are always at risk of losing family businesses. Debbie Stabenow voted twice against getting rid of the Death tax. [Melanie]: "Everything we have worked for can be taken away in an instant and that's not fair."

[Announcer]: Call Debbie Stabenow. Tell her our working families need a break.

[Announcer] It's almost too much to swallow. Year after year the federal government takes a bigger piece of the pie.

In fact in 1998 we'll pay more in federal taxes than at any time in American history except for World War II. And now with the budget surplus, in thirty years all the Washington politicians can talk about is getting their hands on more of your dough. Call Harry Reid and John Ensign tell them no matter who goes to Washington you want them to cut your taxes. Otherwise they'll be

[Announcer]: Medicare cuts to nursing homes threaten quality care. This year the Clinton-Gore Administration is spending $3.5 billion less than Congress provided for nursing home care. No wonder care for seniors is in jeopardy. [Shawberg]: "This isn't about politics, it's about people. These cuts are hurting patient care. It's just wrong."

[Announcer]: Call. Tell Al Gore to fight to restore nursing home funding. [Shawberg]: "Please Vice President Gore, restore the medicare cuts and keep the promise."

[Graduate]: “Dear high tech company, I’d like to send you my resume.”

[Announcer 1]: Dear Graduate, sorry, Congress is going to give your job to a foreign worker. [Graduate]: “But I’ve just finished four hard years of technical studies.”

[Announcer 1]: Sorry, besides foreign workers will work for a lot less. [Announcer 2]: Is this any way to treat American workers? But based on her record, Congresswoman Northrup is likely to vote in favor of the Foreign Worker Bill. Call Congresswoman Northrup and tell her to save our best jobs for American workers. Ask her to vote no on the Foreign Worker Bill.

This message paid for by the Coalition for the Future American Worker.
(Announcer): They may go to Congress with a rigid resolve to represent the people back home. But after a few terms in the boxing cauldron of corrupting influence of Washington, something happens to a Congressman's commitment to stand up for us.

They begin to bend to the wishes and whims of the power brokers and special interests.

Yet despite claiming to support term limits, Merrill Cook refuses to sign the pledge to limit his own terms. Ask Cook before it's too late not to become a career politician.
[Announcer] After years of deficits, the politicians in Washington say we're rolling in money. Here's something they're not saying.

Nearly every dollar of surplus comes from Social Security.

Now the Republican Congress wants to spend the Social Security surplus on a $80 billion dollar election year tax cut. Even if there's talk about cutting Social Security for future retirees. Call Congresswoman Northup and tell her no on this scheme. Tell Northup to put Social Security first.

[Announcer]: Worried about rising healthcare costs? Then look out for the trial lawyers. They want Congress to pass new liability laws that could overwhelm the system with expensive new healthcare lawsuits. Lawsuits that could make trial lawyers richer.

That could make healthcare unaffordable for millions. Senator Lauch Faircloth is fighting to stop the trial lawyers new laws. Call him today and tell him to keep up his fight. Because if trial lawyers win, working families lose.
[Announcer]: Shouldn't we save the Social Security surplus to strengthen Social Security? Most Americans say yes. But Newt Gingrich said no and last month Representative Pat Danner voted for the plan to spend the surplus on an $80 billion election year tax cut instead of saving it all to prevent cuts in Social Security for future retirees. Call Danner and tell her to vote no when the tax plan comes up again. Tell her this time put Social Security first.
